We should not engage in any court cases regarding whether one has more or less or whether the higher is lower.

If any of us violates it, it is not legally valid. From today onwards, we should freely enjoy our separate properties and cash with all the rights and obligations, such as buying, donating, and borrowing. No one should prevent us from using the roads and roads that we have generally established and from burying pipes underground to carry water. From now on, we have no other property rights except blood rights. Now the original document of the deed should be in the possession of 4 of us and copies should be in the possession of 2,6 people. The partition deed that states that if the original document is needed by 2,6 people, 4 people should help is correct.
